I GOT
MY COVID-19
VACCINE!

Vaccine Day at Moundridge Manor

Thursday, January 7, 2021 was a historic day – the COVID-19 vaccine was administered to residents and staff who consented or were eligible. Three Walgreens personnel spent the day at the Manor along with other support staff to give the Pfizer vaccine. By the end of the day 182 residents and staff received the vaccine!! There are two more vaccine clinics scheduled. One on January 28 for follow-up boosters or for those who did not get one earlier. The next clinic is scheduled for February 18.

Christmas 2020 Memories

Carol Friesen – “I was very, very blessed this Christmas with gifts galore. Karla Wedel was my secret stocking pal. The first thing I got in my stocking was a pair of bootie socks to wear at night. Next was a real thick candy cane with a ‘Joy to the World’ wrapper. Then I received a wooden tic-tac-toe game and some mittens. Some other things I received from my secret pal was a tub of dark chocolate peanut butter cups, a ‘Happy Thoughts’ coloring book, a gingham dressed snow bird and a set of colored pencils. The last gift was when Karla came and told me to go to the Rosewood Solarium and there was a beautiful bouquet of flowers – then I knew who my secret pal had been! Todd & Joleah Mastre from the United Center congregation drew my name – they gave me two pairs of fuzzy socks, another gingham dressed snow bird, a Bible word search book, a musical soap box and hand cream set, a lovely motto and a bag. Also, I received Christmas cards that numbered in the 90’s.”

Byron Hiebert – “Christmas was better than I expected. I received over 50 cards – quite a few were from people I didn’t know. My daughter, Cindy, was here and we visited by the window.”

Erma Decker – “I received 111 cards for Christmas. My secret stocking pal was one of my nurses – Emily Branson. First she put in a pair of red socks. Some of the other things she gave me were a pair of slippers, a wooden block ‘perpetual’ calendar, a little white ‘light-up’ church, a stained glass coloring book and colored markers, Caramel M&M’s, a word search book with pretty pen, wooden Christmas sign to color and a 350-piece ‘button’ puzzle.”

Irene Unruh – “I really enjoyed my Christmas! My family came and visited me for an hour at my window. Then I found out my secret stocking pal was Maurita Johnson – she gave me so many nice things that I can’t remember them all. One gift was a jar of peanuts and a great big candy cane – it was huge! From United Center I got a gift from Randy & Darlene Koehn – it was a big beautiful gift bag full of goodies, a book and a gorgeous throw. I received a 90-some Christmas cards. It was quite a Christmas.”
