Resident Story – Janis Koehn

Janis was born on December 4, 1935 to Lyle and Johanna (Johnson) Litwiller in Ithaca, Michigan. Her dad was a farmer so she has many memories of growing up on the farm in Michigan – helping with the chores, gathering eggs and feeding the pigs. With her siblings – two brothers (Darrel and Dean) and two sisters (Maris and Cheryl) she enjoyed riding bike and going fishing. Sometimes they would dig the worms, go to the lake and rent a boat for a couple dollars. She has fond memories of traveling to Kansas to see their Grandpa Johnson's. The winters in Michigan were fun with lots of snow. Janis attended grade school at the Smith Allen School and went until grade 10 at Fulton High School in Newark, Michigan. Her favorite subject was English. At the age of 21 she married Arnold Decker from Halstead, Kansas on April 8, 1956. They lived at Burns and Halstead, Kansas then moved Ithaca, Michigan. They have two children – Christine (Lalo) Arzola, Wilcox, Arizona and Brian (Charlotte) Decker, Walnut Hill, Florida. Arnold was ordained to the ministry in Michigan. Arnold, Janis and their family spent nearly 17 years in Mexico as missionaries learning to love the Spanish culture and foods. It was here that Janis learned to make many delicious Mexican dishes – tacos, fideos, enchiladas, etc. After leaving Mexico they moved to El Campo, Texas. In Texas, Janis worked as a cook at Frank's Bakery and in the nursing home. Also, she cleaned houses for people and baked pies to sell. Through the years she enjoyed teaching Bible School and liked to take dishes to potluck meals at church. We had company over almost every Sunday – we always got ready and sometimes had folks over that we didn't even know. She says “I feel like I've never yet retired.” Her husband, Arnold, passed away from a heart attack on September 20, 1996. After five years she married Warren Koehn from Victoria, Texas on March 11, 2001. She then gained five step-children. He passed away on February 19, 2016. It was after that when Janis moved to the Moundridge Manor in August 2016. Janis has six grandchildren and 3 great-grandchildren from her first marriage. Here at the Manor Janis enjoys spending time reading and working word puzzles. In the past she had a loom to make yarn potholders or mats that she would make to give away.
