NATIONAL NURSES WEEK MAY 6-12, 2021

May 6 is Florence Nightingale's birthday and it is celebrated by starting off Nurse Appreciation Week which continues through May 12. If there is ever a time to celebrate nursing it would be now. This past year, nurses around the world have most likely worked longer hours, lost more tears, and experienced more compassion fatigue than any other time in their career! Take some time out to give our nurses a special thank you by writing a note, a pat on the back, or send an email of appreciation to info@moundridgemanor.net and it will get delivered.

A Special THANKS goes to our Wonderful Nurses:

Unit Managers: Bobbi Schrag, Denise Wiebe, and Lucinda Hiebert

Infection Control: Amanda Bender and Leah Nightingale

Staff Support and Development: Christine Koehn

MDS Coordinator: Susan Huebert

Main Unit Floor Nurses: Grace Holloway, Sharlene Ensz, Vonda Johnson, Rosalie Nichols, Gaynelle Friesen

West Unit Floor Nurses: Cindy Penner, Shannon Unruh, Brianna Regehr, Kathy Koehn, Penny Stucky, Ruth James, Clara Wedel, Sara Rush

Night Shift Nurses: Lisa Schmidt and Adrienne Solis

Another Special Thanks to three nurses that helped us out during our COVID outbreak: Craig Ratzlaff, Regina Dirks and Jael (Missy) Becker.

Then there are those that still are employees but we don't see too often: Vernabelle Koehn, Sharon Martens, and Gina Flood.

We also want to remember our dear nurse, Cassandra Nightingale, may she forever grace our halls with her spirit.

Each and every one of these nurses have filled an incredible role in providing the skills that have been needed over this interesting time. I will forever be grateful and give you my support to continue in this wonderful career of nursing and wishing you courage for the future years!

Thanks for being on Moundridge Manor's Team!

Sincerely, Karla Wedel, DON

P.S. Thank You Karla for being a wonderful leader this past year!!
