NOTICE

Starting next week this weekly bulletin will change to a bi-weekly format until further notice. This bulletin was started in March 2020 at the beginning of the Covid-19 pandemic as a way to convey important and changing information. This need has mostly been fulfilled as the pandemic continues on in a more predictable way. Future needs will be determined as time goes on possibly changing to a monthly format at a later date. Thank you for your support and encouragement during this time.

JANUARY HAPPENINGS

So far January is going along somewhat normal. . .the excitement of Christmas has passed. . .the families have gone back to their homes so there are not as many visitors. . .Covid testing continues among residents and employees for the coughs and other maladies of winter. . .the weather is mostly calm with sunny, warmer days and a few cold days with some snow. . .so we are enjoying 'normal'. Here are a few things we have enjoyed or plan to enjoy yet this month:

- For the Intercom Story we are reading from Treasures of the Snow by Patricia St. John – a story that captures the innocence of childhood, the joys found in little things and learning about the healing power of repentance and forgiveness.
- Sunday School continues on Friday afternoons at 3:00 with John L. Becker coming in to read the lesson and lead the discussion – their time together finishes with several songs and a prayer.
- On Monday evening, January 10, the Inman Quartet once again broadcast gospel singing for nearly an hour – many thanks for singing these last several years every month! The inspiring messages of song never grows old!
- On Tuesday afternoon, January 11, the smells of frying New Year's cookies wafted from the Activity Room. Activity staff and volunteers had heaping trays of this yearly treat ready with plenty of coffee – soon residents and staff were stopping by for their fill! It was so nice to see the residents gathered around the tables with their coffee and New Year's cookies reminiscing and talking about this and that! Of course, today the smell still lingers. . .
- The Staff Engagement Committee has planned a Wear Blue Day for Friday, January 14 – staff and residents are welcome to dig out that blue dress or shirt, socks, etc. and wear blue!
- The rest of the month looks fairly normal – daily exercise groups, Bingo twice a week, coffee groups, an Armchair Travel activity, an afternoon of playing games, Men's Bible Study, singing, etc. Let's enjoy a cozy, relaxing month!
